Reflection...

Gracious God, this ordinary weekend we gather as you people, only a fraction of the community who live around us. We gather on their behalf, with the privilege of representing them before you, the One who unreservedly loves all people and sustains all things.

Look with mercy and love on all who are travelling at this time. Bless the people of our community and our visitors as they pursue their dreams, fill their lives or just hope to get by. We remember our young people sitting exams. We pray especially for anyone particularly in our thoughts at this time. This ordinary weekend, look with mercy and love on those in the conflict areas of our world. Bless those working for peace. Look with mercy and love on us, gathered as your people at this time. We each have our part to play in the body of Christ, the church. Help us to grasp again the great truth that the world is shot through with your presence, that nothing is foreign to you, that you are always there before us and that nothing, therefore, is really "ordinary". And in that confidence we offer you again all that we have, all that we are and all that we could be, as agents of your love this coming week.

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Israeli-Hamas conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world. Amen.
